CBC's Student policies, procedures & generic information

Studying in Sydney

Sydney is the largest and oldest city in Australia. The city is built along the beautiful Sydney Harbour, which now boasts the famous Sydney Harbour Bridge and the Opera House. Our campus is conveniently located close to Central Railway Station, Central Bus Services, Darling Harbour, Chinatown and the centre of Sydney City. Australia is one of the most culturally diverse countries in the world with migrants from more than 170 countries. Sydney is a comparatively safe and clean city to live in. It offers a high standard of living, excellent health and educational facilities, and cosmopolitan shopping centres.

Living Expenses

Yearly living expenses in Australia are approximately from AUD$12,000 plus 35% for each family dependant. (Note: School age dependants are required to pay tuition fees for their education in Australia).

Contact Hours/Terms

Study periods are divided into 4 terms, 9 weeks per term for a total of 36 weeks per annum. As per DIAC regulations, overseas students are required to study with a minimum of 20 contact hours per week on a full-time basis.

CBC classes are Monday-Friday from 9am-1pm (Morning), 3-7PM (Afternoon). Please note that all programs are in full-time mode and cannot be undertaken part-time or via distance education.

Recognition of Prior Learning

RPL is the process that recognises skills and experience you currently have regardless of where and when the learning occurred. To apply for Recognition of Prior Learning you will need to complete the RPL form, which can be requested by emailing to mel@usqsydney.nsw.edu.au. After completing the RPL form please scan and attach all your supporting evidence. RPL procedures are detailed in the RPL Application form. For further information on CBC's RPL process, please review, the student handbook posted on the website www.canterburybc.com.au under policies & procedures section.

Entry Requirements

CBC has specific pre-requisite requirement for individual qualification, however the minimum entry requirements are:

- Must be 18 years of age or over
- Completed Year 10 for Certificate III and IV qualifications (local students)
- Completed Year 12 for Diploma level qualification (local students)
- Completed Year 12 (HSC or equivalent) (International students)
- Minimum 5.5 IELTS score (International students)
- Mature age students with relevant work experience may also apply

Assessment Methods

CBC follows a combinations of methods for unit assessments. For example, direct observation, practical demonstration, written tests, essays, oral tests, projects, simulation & portfolios.

Disciplinary & Dismissal Procedures

An offence involving the breach of CBC's rules and regulations can lead to dismissal, even instant dismissal. For further information on CBC's disciplinary & dismissal process, please review, the student handbook posted on the website www.canterburybc.com.au under policies & procedures section

Grievance Handling Procedure

The CBC grievance process is made up of formal and informal academic and non-academic appeals processes. If you consider that the response to a disciplinary or misconduct decision is unsatisfactory or unfair you have the right to seek further recourse. For further information on CBC's grievance & complaints procedures, please review, the student handbook posted on the website www.canterburybc.com.au under policies & procedures section

Facilities/Equipments

CBC campus is modern and well equipped according to the latest industry standards. CBC has a wide range of facilities which include specialised training rooms, computer laboratories and workshops fully-equipped with the latest equipment, appliances and tools to enhance the student learning experience.

Support Services

CBC offers a wide range of student support/welfare guidance services in both academic and personal areas.

These services are available free of charge to all enrolled students and include

- Orientation
- (overseas student health cover, ID cards, cultural adjustment, bank and financial institution services awareness, student visa conditions and requirements, library, student support services and others);
- Computing services
- Academic and personal counselling
- Awareness of medical and health services options;
- Learning support (language, numeracy, and literacy assistance)

CBC does not offer professional counselling service to students. The Director – student services (DSS) acts as a point of contact and offers support to students on matters and issues that fall within his capacity. However if the student needs professional counselling or support services, then DSS will seek or recommend professional counselling agency

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

All international students are required to pay OSHC and also for parties included in their application before being issued with a visa and that the insurance be maintained throughout the student's stay in Australia. Please refer to the fees schedule on the course brochure for the cost of OSHC

Fee Protection

As a member of Australian Council for Private Education & Training (ACPET), CBC adheres to the Tuition Assurance Scheme (TAS) operated by ACPET for overseas students. This assurance scheme ensures that if any Australian institute is unable to offer a course for any reason, the student will be offered enrolment in another institute operated by an ACPET member.

Accommodation

If student requires the Institute to arrange home stay or other types of accommodation the Student Services staff can be contacted for assistance.

- Hostel Approx AUD$90-150/week
- Home stay Approx AUD$100-170/week
- Shared Rent Approx AUD$40-80 /week

CBC can arrange for airport pickup if advised prior to arrival in Australia

Refund Policy

As per ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2001, a student will be given a full refund if CBC is unable to offer the course.

- In event of visa refusal, Application fee ($200) is not refundable.
- Application Fees, Accommodation Deposit and Airport Pick up fees are refundable if Visa is not granted.
- Tuition Fees, Overseas Students Health Cover are Refundable in full where:
- CBC is advised of the cancellation 28 days or more before course starts.
- Australian Embassy rejects a Visa application.
- Requests for refunds must be made in writing.
- CBC will send refunds to applicant unless otherwise instructed and authorized in writing.
- Tuition fees are not transferable to any other institution or student but may be transferred to another course within CBC.
- If you withdraw from a course once it has commenced no refund of fees is given.
- All refunds are payable in Australian Dollars and normal processing will take about 4 weeks.
- All approved refunds in those cases where fees are paid from overseas are made payable to the student and sent to his/her country of origin.
- Under no other circumstance, will be refund will be given to a student.

Payment of Fee

Students are directed to pay a minimum of 6 months tuition fee in advance. CBC reserves the right to take action against the student if the tuition fees are not paid when due.

Payment method

Students can pay their fees via, bank cheque, credit card (additional charges applicable), cash or via internet banking / telegraphic transfer.

Course Progress policy

CBC will maintain and monitor student's academic progress throughout the duration of the qualification. CBC will put in place all required student support services to assist them in achieving the desired results. Students are expected to achieve a minimum of 50% pass rate in every term. For further information on CBC's academic progress process, please review, the student handbook posted on the website www.canterburybc.com.au under policies & procedures section.

Privacy

Your right to privacy is important to CBC and all personal information collected about you is treated as confidential. You may request access at any time to information we hold about you and ask us to correct it if you believe it is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date. We will only disclose your personal information if you request us to do so in writing, or where the law permits us to do so (Commonwealth and State agencies including VETAB and the Fund Manager of the ESOS Assurance Fund). In these circumstances, the minimum amount of information required or requested will be disclosed. For further information on CBC's privacy policies process, please review, the student handbook posted on the website www.canterburybc.com.au under policies & procedures section.

Transfer between providers

CBC will not authorise student transfer prior to the student completing 6 months of their principal course. Students who have studied longer than this period can apply as normal and no letters of release need to be sighted or produced. For further information on CBC's provider transfer policies, please review, the student handbook posted on the website www.canterburybc.com.au under policies & procedures section
