

INTO-Newcastle University

About the University

INTO-Newcastle University was established in 1997. INTO-Newcastle University provides pathway to International Students to study courses which are validated by University.

Courses

INTO-Newcastle offer academic courses for those International Students who do not meet the entry requirements for direct entry into university. Main courses are following:

1. INTO Foundation Programme: This course prepares International Students for undergraduate study at Newcastle University .They can also get admission in other universities of U.K. On successful completion of this programme one can get admission into following programmes :
 - ✓ Architecture
 - ✓ Business and Management
 - ✓ Humanities and Social Sciences
 - ✓ Physical Sciences and Engineering
 - ✓ Biological and Biomedical Sciences
2. INTO Diploma Programme: This course prepares its students for direct entry into second year of an undergraduate degree at Newcastle University Business School. On successful completion of this course International Students can get admission into following degree courses at Newcastle University Business School :

- ✓ Business and Management, BA
- ✓ Marketing and Management, BA
- ✓ Marketing, BSc

International Programmes

INTO-Newcastle University offers certain courses for International Students. Main International Programmes are following:

1. Pre-Sessional English Course: This course is designed for those International Students who want to improve their English language skills before starting their undergraduate or postgraduate course from Newcastle University. This course is of duration of 10-6 weeks. Duration of this course depends upon English level of student.
2. Summer Courses: This course is for those International Students who want to improve their English language for social communication and travel. This course is taught at International Study Centre on campus of leading universities of U.K. This course provides English language tuition along with social programme for individual and groups. This course is of duration of 2 -10 weeks. Length of this course depends upon English level of student.
3. In-Sessional English course: This course is for those International Students who want to improve their English language while doing their degree programme from Newcastle University. This course provides four hours of additional English language classes while studying a degree.
4. Study Abroad With English: This course is for those International Students who want to improve their English language skill. This course provides an opportunity to International Students to experience life at U.K University along with opportunity to study specialist undergraduate modules. This course is of duration of 6 to 18 months.

5. English For Undergraduate Study: This course help International Students to develop necessary English language skills required for studying undergraduate degree courses offered by INTO Centre. This course is of duration of minimum of one academic term. Successful Completion of this course ensures entry into following programmes :

- ✓ INTO Foundation Programme
- ✓ INTO Diploma in Business Programme
- ✓ Any Undergraduate Degree Programme at Newcastle University.

6. English for Postgraduate Study: This course helps International Students to improve there academic English for entry into postgraduate degree programme or an INTO graduate diploma. This course is of duration of minimum of one academic term.

Sports and Activities

University of Newcastle is one of the largest universities for sports in U.K .All INTO students receive free recreational membership of University Sports Centre and all indoor and outdoor facilities owned by University. Newcastle University has sports centre. Sports centre of Newcastle University has sports hall. Sports hall is divided into six badminton courts, basketball, netball, volleyball courts, four squash courts etc. Outdoor facilities of Newcastle University are excellent. Newcastle University is equipped with all type of sports such as rugby, cricket, tennis, football, hockey, lacrosse and rowing etc. Student Union is at the heart of campus. It is the place where one can take break and meet new people. Student Union is run by annually elected officers. It runs local and national campaigns such as health awareness. It provides access to various clubs and societies where one can make new friends.

Location and Weather

INTO-Newcastle is situated within the south east corner of University Campus. It is opposite Haymarket metro station. INTO-Centre is conveniently located in the University Campus. Newcastle has temperate climate with hot summers and mild winters with rain.

Why to Choose this University

INTO-Newcastle University provides pathway for higher studies. Students enrolled in INTO centre will enjoy the benefits of highly ranked university. INTO-Newcastle University provides an opportunity to its students to study pathway courses that are fully validated by university. INTO-Newcastle University is an integral part of Newcastle University. All courses of INTO centre are fully accredited by Newcastle University. Newcastle University is one of the Britain's leading academic institutions. All INTO courses are of high standard of teaching. Students enrolled in INTO-Newcastle University can have full access to facilities provided by Newcastle University. Newcastle University is ranked top 10 in world for library, learning support and career advice. Newcastle University is ranked 7th in world for overall student satisfaction. Newcastle University is a member of elite Russell Group. It is an association of leading research intensive universities. Hydro chemical Engineering Research and Outreach Group was awarded Queen's Anniversary Prize for Higher and Further Education .Newcastle University is among top 20 universities in U.K which is targeted by local, national and international graduate employers. Newcastle University is known for producing high quality of graduates. Newcastle University is known for its friendly and supportive atmosphere. Newcastle University is ranked second friendliest University. Library of Newcastle University is only library in U.K which is awarded for government's Charter mark for excellent customer service five times. INTO-Newcastle University has Student Advice Centre known as Student Community Action Newcastle. It helps in finding voluntary placements. Newcastle University is one of the leading universities for sport in U.K. All students at INTO centre are provided with personal tutor. These tutors provide advice and guidance regarding the course they should select for further studies, help them in writing a personal statement and also help them in admission process into Newcastle University. Students of INTO centre can get admission in Newcastle University through UCAS (Universities and Colleges Admissions Services). INTO-Newcastle University offers wide range of language courses to its students. INTO centre of Newcastle University is equipped with SANAKO. It is 300 language learning software. According to survey conducted by Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE) Newcastle University is known for spending more time working with business than any other university of U.K. Newcastle University has open access centre. This centre provides an opportunity to its students to improve there knowledge of foreign language along with the subject they are studying. Career Service of Newcastle University has won seven prestigious national career awards. It is the first service to be awarded Matrix Quality Standard .It provide high standard of information, guidance and advice. Newcastle University is the first university in U.K to be awarded fair-trade status. Newcastle University is known for its excellent computer services. Newcastle University is equipped with 1,300 fully networked computers and wireless hotspots. On arrival at Newcastle University students are provided with personal University e-mail address. Newcastle University help its students in developing IT skills. Newcastle University is equipped with Recap facility. Recap facility allows audio and visual material from lectures to be recorded and published online. Newcastle University has writing development centre. This centre offers advice, guidance and tuition to all those students who wish to improve their writing skills for studies or employment purposes.

Advantages for International Students

INTO-Newcastle University provides very warm welcome to International Students. There are over 33,00 International Students from more than 110 different countries. Newcastle University is known for providing ELMO facility to International Students. It is one of its kind in U.K. ELMO is an innovative, multimedia, self study website designed to help International Students to develop English language skills for academic purpose. This site helps International Students in improving their reading, writing, listening, speaking and other necessary skills required for independent studies. Newcastle University provides online e-guides for International Students. E-guide cover variety of English language learning material. International Students studying at INTO centre have an opportunity to live in accommodation provided by Newcastle University. Living cost at Newcastle University is very cheap as compared to other Universities in U.K. INTO-Newcastle University providing following type of accommodation to its students:

1. Residence Halls: INTO-Newcastle University has undergraduate halls of residence. Here International Students get an opportunity to live with U.K students. Mostly halls of residence are with self-catered facility so that International Students can cook what ever they want. INTO centre have appointed a team of senior residents who live with International Students and provide them additional support during evening and weekends.

2. Flats: In this type of accommodation one can have single study bedrooms along with shared kitchen and common room.

3. Home stay: INTO-Newcastle University provides very warm welcome to International Students. In this accommodation one can find home like atmosphere. In this type of accommodation International Students live as a part of family in single study bedroom, sharing mealtime and all other facilities that one needs in a home. This accommodation gives you first hand experience of British family, life and culture of U.K .This provides an opportunity to International Students to develop there English language.

All rooms are equipped with modern facilities. All rooms are equipped with internet facility. INTO-Newcastle University provides financial help to International Students in the form of scholarship .INTO-Newcastle University provide number of partial scholarships to International Students. INTO-Newcastle University provides following scholarships to International Students:

1. International Undergraduate Merit Scholarship: This scholarship is provided to all International Students who have paid there fees irrespective of subject they are studying. This scholarship is awarded on the basis of information they provide in there UCAS application form. This scholarship is provided at undergraduate level.
2. Newcastle University provide a scholarship of 1,500 pounds to those International Students who have successfully completed there foundation programme from INTO-Newcastle University and have achieved overall 65% in there academic module .

- 3. Newcastle University International Postgraduate Scholarship (NUIPS) : This scholarship is awarded to those International Students who want to do Post graduation from Newcastle University after completing graduate diploma from INTO centre. This scholarship is of value of 1,500 pounds per year. It is awarded in the form of reduction in tuition fees. Value of this scholarship may increase to 3,000 pounds depending upon discretion of International Scholarship Committee.

Newcastle university provide an opportunity to International Students to study part of there undergraduate programme in there home country. This programme helps in reducing the cost of course. It is very advantageous for International Students.